Rachel - Sorry, please disregard the data I sent earlier today. I attempted to recall the email I sent today after realizing they were not in the specific format you requested. These data are the same as what I submitted in the monitoring report weeks ago, but I wanted to comply with the instructions you sent me a while back, which entailed emailing data to Alex, Dixon, and Tuesdai. I will resubmit these data in the requested format as soon as I receive the updated EDDs from the laboratory.
John

John - We received today's data submittal for the former Hewitt Landfill. Just so we're tracking on this, how is this data different from the previously submitted data?

Thanks,

Rachel

Subject Former Hewitt Landfill E-data

Please find the attached electronic data for groundwater samples recently collected from the former Hewitt Landfill, operated by CalMat (aka Vulcan Materials Company). These data were also provided electronically within our previously submitted quarterly groundwater monitoring report.
